Earning with Just Rewards Loyalty

- 1. Rewarding Sign-Ups: Upon successfully signing up a new member for the Rewards Program, brokers will receive the first two months of their subscription, valued at R149 each.
- 2. Recurring Commissions: Brokers will continue to earn with Just Rewards Loyalty. Once a new member is on board, brokers qualify for a recurring commission of R20 for each subsequent month that their client remains subscribed to the program.
- 3. Commitment to Quality: Should a client cancel their subscription between the third and sixth months, any commission paid to the broker during that period will be subject to a clawback. This means that the commission will be deducted from future earnings or will be the responsibility of the broker to repay to Just Rewards Loyalty.

We are committed to maintaining the integrity and quality of our program.
